

April 27 – Hard hat tour of the Cleveland Children’s Museum

CREW Cleveland had the honor of touring the new midtown location for the Cleveland Children’s Museum. Scheduled to be open in late 2017, the new site in the historic Stager-Beckwith Mansion will feature 12,000 square feet of exhibit spaces. Attendees were given an all access tour of the mansion including two ballrooms along with a peek into the fully interactive exhibits that museum guests will enjoy.

Please visit our gallery to view photos.